

Short Courses

Business & Professional

Demystifying Company Formation

(2 Hours)

Overview

This seminar is aimed at those within the finance sector and those who are thinking of starting their own business or changing from a sole trader to a Limited Company.

Course Outline

- Why form a company?
- The steps involved
- Documentation required
- Record-keeping requirements
- Statutory requirements
- Ongoing requirements

Pre-requisite knowledge

No knowledge of the subject is required.

CPD Certificates will be provided.

Tutor: Angus Kemp MA(Hons), CertAcc, CA, MBA, MEd

Angus is a Chartered Accountant and his broad commercial experience has been gained both within practice and industry.

He continues to develop his client portfolio as a director of his own Chartered Accountancy practice. Angus has been involved in tutoring professional qualification students within the Channel Islands for over 15 years.

In 1995 he established Offshore Training Consortium in Guernsey, which was subsequently acquired by BPP plc.

Angus's extensive academic credentials include an MA in Economics and Politics, a Postgraduate Certificate in Accountancy, a Teaching Certificate, MBA and a Masters degree in Education.

To reserve a space, please contact us on +44 (0) 1534 729 729