

Short Courses

Business & Professional

Demystifying Company Liquidation

(2 Hours)

Overview

This seminar is an ideal introduction for those who need to know how companies are liquidated.

It is aimed not only at those within the finance sector, but also at those who are thinking of winding up their company's affairs.

Course outline

- Reasons for liquidation
- Voluntary liquidation
- Compulsory liquidation
- Striking off
- The role of the liquidator
- The liquidator's report
- Case studies

Pre-requisite knowledge

No knowledge of the subject is required.

CPD Certificates will be provided.

Tutor: Angus Kemp MA(Hons), CertAcc, CA, MBA, MEd

Angus is a Chartered Accountant and his broad commercial experience has been gained both within practice and industry.

He continues to develop his client portfolio as a director of his own Chartered Accountancy practice. Angus has been involved in tutoring professional qualification students within the Channel Islands for over 15 years.

In 1995 he established Offshore Training Consortium in Guernsey, which was subsequently acquired by BPP plc.

Angus's extensive academic credentials include an MA in Economics and Politics, a Postgraduate Certificate in Accountancy, a Teaching Certificate, MBA and a Masters degree in Education.

To reserve a space, please contact us on +44 (0) 1534 729 729